Philadelphia Area Association of Health Care Recruiters Wins NAHCR Chapter of the Year Award

Morrisville, N.C. – The Philadelphia Area Association of Health Care Recruiters (PAAHCR) was announced as the winner of the National Association for Health Care Recruitment’s (NAHCR) Chapter of the Year Award. The announcement was made in conjunction with the Gala Awards Dinner at the 2008 Image Conference in Orlando, FL on Thursday, July 24, 2008.

NAHCR’s Chapter of the Year Award recognizes an affiliate chapter for outstanding achievement within the past calendar year.

Chapters must submit a narrative of no more than 2,000 words that addresses each of the following specified criteria areas: membership, chapter programs, communication, advancing the health care recruitment profession and healthcare advocacy.

Founded as a non-profit trade association representing the health care recruitment industry, NAHCR serves to strengthen and promote the industry through communication and education.
